If any breach of the BBYO UK Code of Conduct by a participant results in any damage or loss to property or premises, the parents / guardians of that participant will be held responsible for the full costs of any such damage or loss and any consequential loss arising as a result of that damage or loss.

BBYO UK may update or revise the Code of Conduct at any time.

If prevented from carrying out any such search, BBYO UK is entitled to take this as an indication that such prohibited items may be in the possession or under the control of such participant or leader.

7. Medical

Participants and their parents / guardians are required to complete the BBYO UK Medical Form promptly when requested and to disclose all relevant conditions and information and to update any such information prior to the programme.

Any failure to disclose medical information requested on the BBYO UK Medical Form or the disclosure of inaccurate or misleading medical information will be grounds for rejection or dismissal from Camp BBYO and in this situation, there shall be no refunds of any amounts paid.

BBYO UK is committed to inclusion and will seek to make reasonable and proportionate adjustments in order to allow applicants to join Camp BBYO. In the unlikely event that BBYO UK considers that it is unable safely or reasonably to meet the medical needs of an applicant as set out in the completed BBYO UK Medical Form, BBYO UK will promptly respond to the relevant parents / guardians setting out its concerns. Ultimately, BBYO UK has the absolute right to refuse an applicant whose medical needs it reasonably considers it is unable reasonably and safely to accommodate.

Where BBYO UK consider it necessary, based on the information disclosed by a participant on their BBYO UK Medical Form, BBYO UK will write a care plan for that participant. Any such care plans will be shared with the participant's parents / guardians prior to the start of Camp BBYO.

In the event of any medical emergency of any kind, dental or medical treatment, as advised to be necessary by the appropriate medical authority, may be given to the participant. In the case of medical emergency, such treatment may be given without first contacting the participant's parents / guardians if medically necessary.

Any medication brought to Camp BBYO by participants (whether prescription medication or not) must be handed over to the leaders, (other than EpiPens and inhalers where the care plan specifies that such medication should be retained by the participant). BBYO UK will do its best to store such medication in accordance with any instructions given but can not guarantee its safety or security and is not liable for any loss or damage to that medication (other than in accordance with the operation of law).

The participant agrees to receive and take their medication as detailed in the BBYO UK Medical Form and otherwise to abide by any requirements contained in their care plan.
